A shooting affair took place at the Bourbon House late on Friday night, between Joseph Embury, of Mt. Sterling, and Deputy Marshal James Meragha. Embury was drunk and noisy, and was told several times by the officer to keep quiet, which he refused to do, and drew a revolver on the Marshal, who drew his and fired several shots which took effect in Embury's body, who is dangerously wounded. Both were immediately arrested by Marshal Forester.

Mayor O'Connor is still keeping up high claims. On Saturday two men from North Middletown, named J. W. King and George Thomas, the latter a wealthy farmer, paid $25.00 for indulging in a little spree. The latter was assessed $18.30 for being intoxicated on the street corner. Edward McKinney and Jack Collins were each fined $10.00 and costs, for conduct a little obnoxious to decorum.

Mr. John James Platt and Col. W. G. Terrell, representing the Commercial at the Fair, took a pleasure trip to Blue Springs, Saturday morning. They were accompanied by a number of ladies from distant places visiting their Parisian friends, and attended the hops given every evening last week.

LEXINGTON, KY.—The Lexingtonians are jubilant over the brilliant achievements upon their race course. What would these Lexingtonians be without horses?

Mr. Charles Kastle is putting a remarkably neat front in his new building on Main street. Mr. Kastle is one of our most enterprising business men. Salisbury's Troubadours are going to give Lexington a visit. The Court of Common Pleas is in session, Judge B. F. Buckner presiding. The term will continue for four more days.

Ensign John Milton, U. S. N., is at home on a visit to his relatives. Mr. Milton's father is the City Treasurer of Lexington, and a most estimable citizen.

Miss Fannie Stanhope and Miss Minnie Spencer, of this city, are visiting Miss Mitchell, of Paris.

The Fayette County (col.) Agricultural and Mechanical Fair begins next Tuesday. The enterprising publishers of the Weekly Courier-Citizen will issue a daily paper during the Fair. It is rumored that the Daily Press office is to be moved further up town at an early day.

A sack of flour was stolen from Mr. Mark Eckels' residence on Madison street Saturday night.

John Ryan fell from the top of the office on the ferryboat yesterday and broke his collar bone. Dr. L. L. Pythian attended to his injuries, after which he was taken to his home on Southgate street.

Mr. Rosard's happy family increased by 19 lbs. a son.

Gertrude Doppelhoff fell from a wagon on the Dayton Pike yesterday and fractured her leg. Dr. Davis attended her injuries.

According to the decision in the suit of the city of Newport vs. Timberlake, in the Court of Appeals recently, it was decided that there is no power conferred by the charter to assess the owners of property abutting on any street in grading either cuts or fills done upon that street, except what is conferred by section eight of the act of 1854, which is of doubtful constitutionality.

There were no services at the Second Presbyterian Church yesterday, on account of the illness of the pastor, Rev. James F. Hamilton.

The Covant Minstrel Troupe gave a creditable performance to a large and select audience at Odd-fellows' Hall Saturday night.

James Anderson, of Pendleton county, lost a valuable horse at the Alexandria Fair early Saturday morning, which either strayed away or has been stolen. We have been requested to publish the following account of an affair which took place in Bellevue on Saturday night: Two young men named Tedore and Combs, about three o'clock Sunday morning, proceeded to a saloon owned by Patrick Mullin, and demanded admittance. Being refused, they threatened to go in by force. Mr. Mullin quietly informed them if they did they might have their collars ready. They not being ready to do just then, left and proceeded to a grocery store kept by Mrs. Edwards, a widow lady, and her two daughters. There they commenced kicking at the door and demanded admittance, saying they would not leave until they got in.

They were also delectated in this object, as some of the people living in the vicinity heard the noise and informed the Marshal, who at once proceeded to the place, but the ruffians hearing him coming vanished in the darkness and made their escape. As both parties are well known there is no doubt but that they will be brought to justice and made to suffer for their disgraceful conduct. The worst feature in the case is that one of the parties is the son of a Justice of the Peace, and it would be supposed should know and respect the law.

Major Dawling, the Lexington correspondent of the STAR, passed through the city this morning on his way to Richmond, Ind.

People who go to church regularly on Sunday should be careful how they trifle with those engaged in the services of the church. There is a vast amount of difference between a $20 gold piece and a brass trunk check, or a railroad check. When a collector goes his rounds he considers his office a sacred one and will resent any insult offered to him as being offered to the entire congregation. The young man that this refers to will be taught how to behave himself in future.

Fred. Aie, Sick Shawback, and J. Jackson, who run a race on Madison street from York to the Licking river at 5 o'clock this evening. The stakes are a box of cigars.

Newport at present has two Mayors. After the election no doubt we will have three.

Mrs. Riech will give a ball at her residence, on this street, this evening. All customers are all invited, and a good time may be expected.

A dispatch received at the Engine-house from a friend of Mr. Charles Berry, who is visiting in Greenville, Ohio, announces his wedding, which took place last Friday. We hope to greet Mr. Berry and his bride within the next few days.

Charles Stowers (colored) was fined $1 and costs inquire Buchanan's Court this morning for a breach of the peace.

No City Court this morning.

The Sharpshooters and the Active played a game at Driving Park yesterday. The score stood 10 to 8 in favor of the Active. The only person we know in this club is Peter—, a very naughty boy, indeed, or he would not play ball on Sunday.

Stephen Weidner returned Sunday with three dogs and one game cock.

The Duerber Watch Case Manufacturing Company will begin excavation for their new building in a few days.

HAMILTON.—Saturday the Sheriff and his deputies served the special writ in the Ruffer case.

James E. Campbell, William Pfau and others, Knight-Templars, arrived from Put-in-Bay Friday evening.

C. W. Gerard, Prosecuting Attorney of Hamilton county, was in the city Saturday, looking after matters in the Ruffer case.

Rev. T. J. Harris, pastor of the M. E. Church, has been continued for another year. With this will close his third year as pastor of this congregation.

The following entry appears on the Commissioners' journal: "The Board of County Commissioners, by a unanimous vote, resolved to institute suit on the official bond of J. C. Lindsey, late Treasurer of Butler county, Ohio."

The members of the First Ward Fire Department, in a card, tendered their thanks to the citizens of Hamilton for the liberal donations in their behalf in the contest for the nickel-plated nozzle at the Old Folks' tea party last Thursday evening.

James E. Campbell will address the Democracy of Fairfield township, at Symmes Corner, on Tuesday evening, and on Saturday next will speak at the Madison House.

Saturday the Miami Base-ball Club played a match game with the New Haven which resulted in the defeat of the Miami, by a score of 12 to 30.

The County Commissioners, on Saturday opened bids for stone and wood work for the erection of a number of bridges. The stone work of the Pisgah bridge was let to John Law, at $75 per perch. The stone work of the Spade bridge, Ross Township, was awarded to Sharkey & Son, at $34 per perch; the superstructure of the Spade bridge was given to Wm. D. Fienner, at $25 per 100 feet. The wood work of the Hughes and Pisgah bridges, were given to Louis McIntory, for $27 per 100 feet, Long and Semple, for $25 per 100 feet, and Superintendent the erection of said bridges.

Amusements.—Mr. Oliver Doud Byron will for once forsake the sensational, and don the "sock" in legitimate comedy, appearing for the first time in the character of "Bank Stocks" in the play of that name. The comedy is an adaptation from the French by the distinguished authoress, Martha Lafitte Johnson. It is peculiarly adapted to Mr. Byron's style of acting, and will, no doubt, prove a success.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—Mr. Oliver Doud Byron will for once forsake the sensational, and don the "sock" in legitimate comedy, appearing for the first time in the character of "Bank Stocks" in the play of that name. The comedy is an adaptation from the French by the distinguished authoress, Martha Lafitte Johnson. It is peculiarly adapted to Mr. Byron's style of acting, and will, no doubt, prove a success.

THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—Miss Ada Gray will appear this evening in an entirely new drama entitled "Edge Tools." The play will be cast to the entire benefit of the company. Mr. Frank Brown will play "Gino" in "De Light." Mr. Bradley will also appear. Mr. Elske, who made such a hit in "Bulls and Bears," is not in the cast. The play will only run until Tuesday evening. Wednesday Miss Gray will appear as "Camille."

THE NATIONAL.—This house offers a fine programme for to-night, introducing several new stars, among whom are the Latvian Brothers and Frank Lee. Several of the old favorites have also been retained. Upon Thursday evening Mr. Edgar Robinson, the Manager, will be tendered a benefit by several of our leading citizens.

GULICH'S GRAND CENTRAL.—This house, in order to keep pace with the times and the demands of its patrons, offers an immense programme for to-night, when several new stars and new attractions will be introduced.

McEvoy's Hibernian will open to-night at Mozart hall, giving one of their unique entertainments, and will be giving the entire proceeds of the entertainment will be donated to St. Patrick's and St. Edward's parishes.

Col. Dan Rice opens his celebrated horse show for the first time this evening, on the old Emery lot, on Race street, between Fourth and Fifth. In addition to the celebrated Broncho horses, the Col. will exhibit his world-wide celebrity, his champion horse, Excelsior, a son of the famous Grey Eagle. This horse seems almost endowed with human reason, turning to the right or left, and performing all of his wonderful tricks when told, as we may say in "straight English," as well as most men could do. Lovers of horses and horse shows should not fail to visit the Colonel's entertainment.

Pioneer Spice Mills Destroyed by Fire.—Yesterday morning, shortly before five o'clock, private watchman Bob Powell discovered a fire in the spice mills of Parker, Harrison & Co., No. 29 West Second street, between Vine and Race. The fire was found to be in the third and fourth stories of the building and was burning briskly. An alarm from box 13 was immediately sounded, which was followed by a second and third. The flames soon broke through the roof, and it was brought to justice and made to suffer for their disgraceful conduct. The worst feature in the case is that one of the parties is the son of a Justice of the Peace, and it would be supposed should know and respect the law.

The amount of stock and machinery destroyed is about $18,000, divided among the Globe, Citizens', Firemen's, and one or two other home companies. The Globe sustains the largest loss, $4,000; the Citizens', $2,000, and the Firemen's $1,500.
